

Title : Tailor Shop Management System: A Case Study Of King & Queen Tailor Shop

Student's Name : Kanlayanee Bai-ngern
Chatchamin Wiwatmaneeekorn

Degree Sought : Bachelor of Business Administration

Major / Faculty : Information System

Academic Year : 2018

Project Adviser : Tatiya Ongsiriporn

ABSTRACT

This project aims to develop tailor shop management system, a case study of King & Queen Tailor Shop, and evaluate the user satisfaction. The system functions consist of user authorization, log-in information management, selling management, renting and returning management, tailoring management, product categorizing management, warehouse management, customer information management, user data management, printing out a report, user logfiling. The system was developed by using PHP language and MySQL as a database.

According to the satisfaction analysis of system, in the view of experts and users found that the experts' satisfaction was at a high level as well as the users' satisfaction was at a high level. In conclusion, the tailor shop management system can be used.

Keywords : PHP/ MySQL / King & Queen Tailor Shop