

Title	THE DEVELOPMENT OF AN EDUCATION ORGANIZATION WEBSITE WITH A CONTENT MANAGEMENT SYSTEM: A CASE STUDY OF FACULTY OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION RAJAMANGALA UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY KRUNGTHEP
Author	Puwadol Sappabopit Wittawat Kijuodmsap Rahat Chantarataksin
Department / Faculty	Information System / Business Administration
Advisors	Mr. Kitjipong Itthithumsakul
Academic Year	2018

Abstract

This project is the development of a service system with the objective to develop a website, an education organization with a content management system, a case study of the Faculty of Business Administration. Rajamangala University of Technology Krungthep to be Convenient, fast and easy to use as well as to present information to be convenient, accurate and fast.

The development of the system, the developer uses the development guidelines according to the system development cycle, which is to determine the problem and study the system for planning, analyzing, designing the system, developing the system, testing the system for use and evaluation. The system uses PHP to write the program and the database to store the database. The developer has analyzed the cause of the problem by using the fishbone diagram to easily solve the problem.

According to the analysis of website management satisfaction, an education organization with a content management system, a case study of the Faculty of Business Administration, Rajamangala University of Technology Krungthep, in the overall, the result found that experts, publicist and user are satisfied at a moderate level. In conclusion, the website can be used.

Keywords: Website management / System / Business Administration