Abstract

Carcare shop management system has developed a web application for Carcare shop management system. The purpose is to facilitate the user to use the system. The system can be allocated in the field of service, start the service, add user information manually according to the information provided.users can view the status of the service immediately by themselves. the tools used are Visual Studio, MySQL, Javascript, HTML.

Keywords Web Application Carcare Management